Translating Knowledge in to Practice

mail@cuticonkerala.in | www.cuticonkerala.in

Dear IADVLite,

Greetings from Kannur!

We are delighted to share that Kannur is hosting CUTICON Kerala 2026, the 53rd Annual Conference of the Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists & Leprologists Kerala (IADVL Kerala), on 21st & 22nd November 2026 at the E.K. Nayanar Academy Auditorium.

It is a proud moment for Kannur, the land of looms and lores, to host this prestigious gathering.

On behalf of IADVL Kerala, the Kannur Derma Club, and the Organising Committee, we warmly invite you to join us for two enriching days of academic excellence, meaningful interactions, and warm hospitality.

The theme of CUTICON Kerala 2026 is "Translating Knowledge into Practice" and we promise engaging scientific sessions, vibrant discussions, and memorable professional connections.

We look forward to welcoming you to Kannur for an inspiring and refreshing conference experience.

Warm regards,

IADVL Kerala EC & Team Kannur

WHAT WE OFFER

"Translating Knowledge into Practice" reflects our commitment to bridging scientific advances with day-to-day clinical care. Through diverse academic sessions across the spectrum of dermatology, we aim to provide practical, evidence-based insights and meaningful take-home messages for both academicians and practising dermatologists.

ABOUT KANNUR

Kannur, a charming coastal city in northern Kerala, blends history, culture, and natural beauty. Home to landmarks like St. Angelo Fort and Arakkal Museum, it is known for its vibrant folk arts, pristine beaches, rich colonial heritage, and unique cuisine influenced by Kerala, Persian, Yemeni, and Arab traditions. Highlights include the palm-fringed sands of Payyambalam Beach, Muzhappilangad Beach, the longest Drive-in Beach in Asia and Vayalpra Lake situated near Madayi. Well connected by air, rail, and road, Kannur offers an unforgettable experience of Kerala's warmth, hospitality, culture and coastal charm.

Come, let Kannur weave its magic on you, leaving indelible memories that linger long after the conference.

ABOUT VENUE

E K Nayanar Memorial Academy is a state-of-the-art convention centre located at Burnassery in the Cantonment area of Kannur. Spread across 45,000 square feet over three floors, the academy stands on the historic site where the renowned Thiruvepathi Mills once flourished. Blending heritage with modern elegance, the complex offers a range of versatile indoor and outdoor venues.
